Drive to Dwarka Check into the Hotel. Refresh. Go for the Dwarkadhish Temple, Overnight stay at Hotel.

Day 2 Dwarka Night

Early morning go for Beyt Dwarka evening come back the Hotel after little rest go for Aarti. Overnight stay at Hotel.

Bet Dwarka

Bet Dwarka is considered the original abode of Krishna. The island was a full-fledged port before Okha developed nearby. The main temple was built about 500 years ago by Shri Vallabhacharya, a prominent guru of the Pushtimargh Sampradaya, and has an idol believed to have been made by Rukmini.

Rukmani Temple :-

Rukmini Temple, Dwarka, India dates back to the 12th century. There is a story behind this temple.

Nageshwar Mahadev Jyotirling:-

Situated towards Okha, this temple enshrines one of the 12 jyotilingas in India. The legend relates that centuries ago the jungle (vana) that covered this area was inhabited by a demon couple named Daruka and so it was called Daruka Vana,

Gopi Talav:-

Now popularly known as Gopnath Mahadev, this 6th c. shrine in Nani Gop Village is one of the earliest built temples in Gujarat. Opinion is divided on whether it was originally dedicated to the Sun or to Shiva. It has a two-layered pyramid shaped roof. The high platform and the open space around the sanctum gives the temple an appearance of enhanced height.

Day 3 Porbander-Somnath Night

Porbandar

Sudamapuri Temple:-

Although the temple structure is not extraordinary, it is associated with a popular tale of Krishna and his dear friend Sudama. The shrine marks where Sudama's hut once stood and is the only temple dedicated to him in India.

KirtiMandir:-

The main attraction for most visitors to this city is the three story house where Gandhiji was born in 1869. The spot where his mother gave birth is marked with a Swastika. A narrow stairway LEADS UP TO HIS STUDY. Adjacent to the 165-year old residence is the 24 m high KirtiMandir with 79 lamps on its peak-one for each year of Gandhiji's life.

Bharat Mandir and Nehru Planetarium:-

The Bharat Mandir is a permanent exhibition that highlights the nature features and prominent spiritual and historical figures of India. Upstairs is the Nehru Planetarium, also known as Tara Mandir, with slightly outdated technology. Nearby are mud flats popular with migratory birds. It is a great spot for birdwatching.

Somnath

Somnath Temple Old & New:-

Somnath temple, a highly revered temple, is one of the main 12 Shiva temples in India enshrining the Jyotirlingas. The temple is constructed in the Chalukya style with a height of about 155ft.

TriveniSangam:-

TriveniGhat in Somnath is the confluence of three holy rivers namely Kapil, Hiran and a mystical River Saraswathy. It is believed that the rivers flow to the ultimate destination of Sea from here. This symbolizes the human birth, life and death.

GeetaMandir:-

Gita Mandir, placed at the confluence of three holy rivers known as TriveniTirtha, is a Krishna temple built by Birla family in 1970. Mythology says that Lord Krishna walked about 4km from BalukaTirtha to here after hit by the arrow by a hunter Jara.

Day 4 Junagadh Night

In the morning check out Hotel & drive to the Junagadh & Check in Hotel and go for the sightseeing. overnight stay at Hotel.

Junagadh

The Old City

Narsinh Mehta no Choro:-

This is where the renowned medieval Gujarati poet and saint, Narsinh Mehta, is believed to have sung his Bhajans.

Tombs and Babi Kings

About a dozen mausoleums belonging to the Babi Dynasty are enclosed in one area. These include the founder of the dynasty, SherSalabat Khan, who took advantage of the weakening hold of the Mughals and proclaimed Junagarhan independent state in 1748.

MahabatMaqbara:-

Probably the best preserved monument from the Babi period, the maqbara is built over the grave of NawabMahabat Khan 2 (1851-82).

Najubibi'sMaqbara:-

This mausoleum of Mahabat Khan II's mother has five domes with four entrance and is decorated with floral images.

Darbar Hall Museum:-

Also known as Kacheri Hall, this was the court of the Nawabs. It is in the heart of the city near DiwanChowk

In the morning check out Hotel & drive to the SasanGir& Check in Hotel and go for the sightseeing. overnight stay at Hotel sasangir.

Day 5 Junagadh-SasanGir Night

SasanGir

Davelia Park:-

The Asiatic Lion is the major attraction for most visitor to Junagarh, and the Davilia Park/Gir Forest abode. As a result of excessive hunting, poaching and forest depletion, the lion population was on a dramatic decline before 1965. Currently the lion population ia at about 359. Night stay at sasangir.
